Class of '10 dreams take flight

BY VICKI BROOKER

Review Staff

"May your dreams take you... to the corners of your smiles, to the highest of your hopes, to the windows of your opportunities, and to the most special places your heart has ever known."

This longest-ever theme set the stage for F. G. Miller's Class of 2010 farewell ceremonies, which vice-principal Cheri Lindquist said was "actually a grad. All 34 students gave the potential to graduate, depending on their marks after the June and August departmentals. Twenty-four of them have already received their diplomas."

Speaking as a parent, teacher and administrator, she told the class, "education is a never ending process, and receiving a high school diploma is the first step on your career path."

Former FGM principal Jim Hawkins gave the invocation, his "wish, hope and prayer that this class is prepared to meet the challenges, and has the drive to keep moving, the nerve to stay in the game." He ended with the traditional Irish blessing.

Alyxandra Aarbo accepted the Governor General's Award from Superintendent of Schools Glen Brodziak before stepping up to the microphone to give her valedictory address, which started with a quote from a Disney film, "A dream is a wish your heart makes..."

She urged her classmates to "Dream like the Disney characters. Focus on the positive and good, push past the obstacles. Dreams will help us do everything. Have faith in your dreams, and rainbows will come shining through. Work hard; try your best. We all have the potential to be what we want to be. Together, we pull back the curtain of life. I believe in all of us."

Full slate of activities for Canada Day

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

It's past the northern hemisphere's official longest day of the year, but Elk Point's Canada Day runs a close second, with non-stop activities from the 8 a.m. pancake breakfast to the 11 p.m. fireworks display. The theme for the day is 'Celebrate Canada,' and the community is going all-out to do just that.

The Elk Point Chamber of Commerce pancake breakfast will once again be held in the Servus Credit Union parking lot, and will again feature good country music to munch by. By the time the last pancake leaves the grill, it will be time to position your lawn chair along Main Street or some other convenient spot to watch the 11 a.m. parade go by, with a cavalcade of decorated bicycles leading the way. Parade lineup begins at 10 a.m. on Railway Ave, with judging starting at 10:30, bicycle judging at 10:45. No prior registration is required, and the more entries the merrier.

After the parade, there's just time to grab lunch at the Skating Club's arena concession, the Christian Community Church pie booth or the Elk Point Co-op's fundraiser for the water spray park before the 1 p.m. official opening ceremonies at the Alberta Centennial Stage north of the arena. Following the flag raising and bilingual singing of O Canada, that stage will offer a variety of song and dance numbers, including vocals by Olivia Leaf, Debra McQuinn, Brooke Gormley and the Harmony Singers and dance performances by the Ludlage sisters and the Frog Lake Star hoop dancers, while right next door in the outdoor skating rink, there will be games and activities for the youngsters. The OORP's big Canada Day birthday cake will also be served near the stage during the afternoon.

New to the entertainment lineup this year, the Sound Dragons concert, featuring Mockteerah and other area groups, will rock the downtown area, starting at 1:15 p.m. on the stage in the credit union parking lot.

The sixth annual Bear Den Strength Challenge has been moved up to a 2:30 start time and will be held in the arena again this year, offering a shady spot to cheer on the competitors. The Farm Survival Challenge, behind F. G. Miller High School, also has an earlier time slot, starting at 5:30 p.m., and the exciting Canada Day Idol talent competition at the Arts and Leisure Centre has been moved up a half hour from previous years and now has an 8 p.m. start.

The Elks Lodge is again hosting their beef-on-a-bun supper from 4 to 6:30 p.m. at the Elks Hall, and just in case you're still hungry, the Allied Arts Society will have hot dogs on their barbecue at the Arts and Leisure Centre from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

The fireworks display will once again be based north of the arena, and will end the day with a multitude of bangs at 11 p.m.

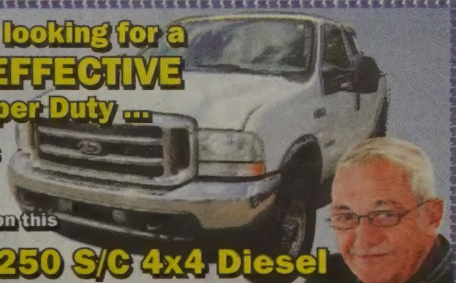

Happy Canada Day, everyone!

National award for nurse manager

INFORMATION SUBMITTED

Elk Point resident Levina Ewasiuk recently returned from Ottawa where she accepted the Deputy Minister's Award for Excellence, in the category of Exceptional Contribution.

Ewasiuk was nominated by the Deputy Minister's selection committee for this award. She was the key driver behind the establishment of a program to provide diploma nurses in her area with the opportunity to complete their nursing degrees through the University of Alberta. Her determination to see this program come to fruition was sited in the Awards program as a "true demonstration of her leadership and commitment to lifelong learning". She is described as "a person with a high degree of integrity and responsibility" and considered a "progressive leader and true mentor".

Ewasiuk is a Zone Nurse Manager with the First Nations & Inuit Health Branch in the Lakeland Area of northeastern Alberta. She currently leads a team of nurses to provide comprehensive community health programs in partnership with First Nations communities in the geographical area from Frog Lake to north of Fort McMurray and from Goodfish Lake to the Saskatchewan border.

She also works with other partners to increase the access of First Nations people to provincial health services. She maintains the connection among nurses in her zone through facilitating regular team meetings to discuss new ideas and to build new relationships. The result is a strong resilient team.

Ewasiuk lives on a farm just south of Elk Point, and has an office at the Kehewin Health Centre. She has been a nurse for 32 years.

located and allegations arose that the male suspect was actually the victim. It is alleged that the female caller assaulted the male victim with the assistance of her sister. The male victim used physical force to leave the residence, prompting the suspect to call police. Two Frog Lake females, aged 18 and 27 have been charged with assault.

On June 15 at 2 a.m., a 911 call was received from a residence in Fishing Lake. Nothing was said during the call but an argument could be heard. Members attended the residence and determined that a female had called 911 because of an alleged assault by her boyfriend. The 45-year-old male had become jealous over text messages received by the 21-year-old victim. The suspect pulled the victim's hair and punched her several times. During the alleged assault, the victim was unable to leave the residence and could not call for help. The suspect was charged with several offenses, including assault, forcible confinement and failing to comply with a court order.

On June 15 at 11:30 p.m., RCMP were called by a female who reported that her sister had been assaulted by her husband earlier in the night. Members attended the victim's residence in Elk Point and found the accused male inside. It is alleged that the victim and suspect were driving to Elk Point from Saddle Lake when they engaged in an argument. During the argument, the victim kicked the steering wheel, causing the vehicle to swerve into the oncoming lane. The suspect then began punching the victim until the victim was able to get out of the vehicle. The 39-year-old Elk Point male has been charged with assault.

Theft of trailer

On June 12, Elk Point RCMP received a complaint of a stolen 2008 29-foot Jayco Jayflight trailer from a campsite at Laurier Lake. Investigation has found that the trailer, which had been locked, went missing between June 6 and June 12. Investigation into the matter is ongoing and the RCMP is seeking the assistance of the general public regarding the incident.

July 16 release for Mockteerah's new EP

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

The Elk Point-based rock band Mockteerah is gearing up for the July 16 release of their new extended-play CD.

Josh Boyko, who has been playing guitar "since my dad showed me a few chords, between Grades 7 and 8," and Colin Ference started playing music together "almost five years ago," Boyko says. In the past year, they've added Sean Joly on bass and Cody Fedun on drums to the group. "We've been seeking out people into the same genre, and we found guys willing to stick it out with us."

Their music is rock, but "we're staying away from new effects and trying to keep it classic, wit some new stuff for the new generation," Boyko says.

Mockteerah produced their first CD, the 10-song "In Ruins," in 2008, and has been getting some good exposure. "The Menace," first released as a single and later as a number on their first album, was featured on 106.1 The Goat's top 100 of 2007 as number 68. "That's the most popular of our songs," Boyko notes. Their new single, "The Kiss Goodnight," is currently being played on radio stations across Alberta, "and we're going through Oddball Productions to try to get more radio play across Canada."

The new EP was recorded at Beta Studios in Edmonton, "and they have a lot of good connections," including those that got them a bit part in an upcoming movie, Boyko says.

"Three of us went to the water park at West Edmonton Mall to be extras in the new Fubar movie."

Mockteerah is planning a new album for next year, "and we'll probably start recording new tracks this fall, and doing a music video of the first track," Boyko says.

Two young bands from the area will also be performing at the July 16 show "for all ages" at the Elk Point Arts and Leisure Centre. Bricktop comes from Vermilion, and plays a similar genre of music, Boyko says. "We thought they'd be a good opening act. And Angel Down is a group from F. G. Miller High School that we're giving the opportunity to play with us. They'll be the first band of the evening."

Mockteerah is also featured in the Sound Dragons stage show on Canada Day afternoon in downtown Elk Point.

Kehewin campground reopens for Canada Day

EDMONTON: The Government of Alberta has partnered with W. L. Enterprises of Bonnyville to reopen the provincial campground at Kehiwin Provincial Recreation Area in time for the Canada Day weekend.

In late April, the recreation area was converted from overnight camping to day use after a review of usage and maintenance costs. Service reductions were announced for 19 sites in order to maintain the highest possible level of service throughout the provincial parks system.

Interested parties were encouraged to submit proposals to operate the sites identified for closure and agreement has now been reached with W. L. Enterprises of Bonnyville to operate the campground within Kehiwin Provincial Recreation Area.

Kehiwin Provincial Recreation Area has 38 units that are available for first-come first-served visitors. Onsite amenities include a boat ramp, fire pits, fish cleaning station, pier, pit toilets and pump water.

Early deadline

Due to the Canada Day holiday on Thursday, July 1, deadline for classified advertising and news submissions for the July 6 issue has been moved up to 4 p.m. on Wednesday, June 30.

Enjoy a safe and happy Canada Day, everyone!

EDITORIAL

In the winners' circle

The Elk Point Review is proud to announce that we, the St. Paul Journal and the Bonnyville Nouvelle have all been declared winners in the Alberta Weekly Newspapers Association's 2009 General Excellence Awards.

Weekly newspapers across the province entered their papers from the week of June 1 to 7 and from the week of Oct. 12 to 18, 2009 in the competition for these prestigious awards.

In Class A, for papers with a circulation under 1,299, the Review placed third in the Front Page category. In Class C, circulation 2,000 to 3,499, the Nouvelle won both second place overall and third place sports page, and in Class D, circulation 3,500 to 6,499, the Journal won third place overall and third place front page.

Congratulations to our sister papers. It is an honour to share the winners' circle with them.

WAY BACK WHEN....

Anniversaries, achievements and insight

HERE'S THE NEWS THAT MADE THE HEADLINES OF THE LAKELAND REVIEW AND THE ELK POINT REVIEW FOR THE WEEK OF JUNE 29 IN...

1985

Elk Point 4-H Beef Club celebrated 20 years of achievements and activities, with member Donna Brooker presenting a plaque to Paul Stepa, who had purchased an Elk Point 4-H steer every year the club had been in existence. Shawna Kinjerski and Ron Vogel were named Elk Point's Youth of the Year during the Canada Day celebrations, and had the honour of cutting the Canada Day cake.

1990

Orest Boyko and Ray Danyluk piloted the outrigger-equipped Richland Express to a three-hour, eight-minute win in the Elks Lodge Raft Race to kick off Canada Day. Pandemonium struck the celebration just hours later, when a team spooked and bolted into a crowded area during the parade lineup, injuring several people.

1995

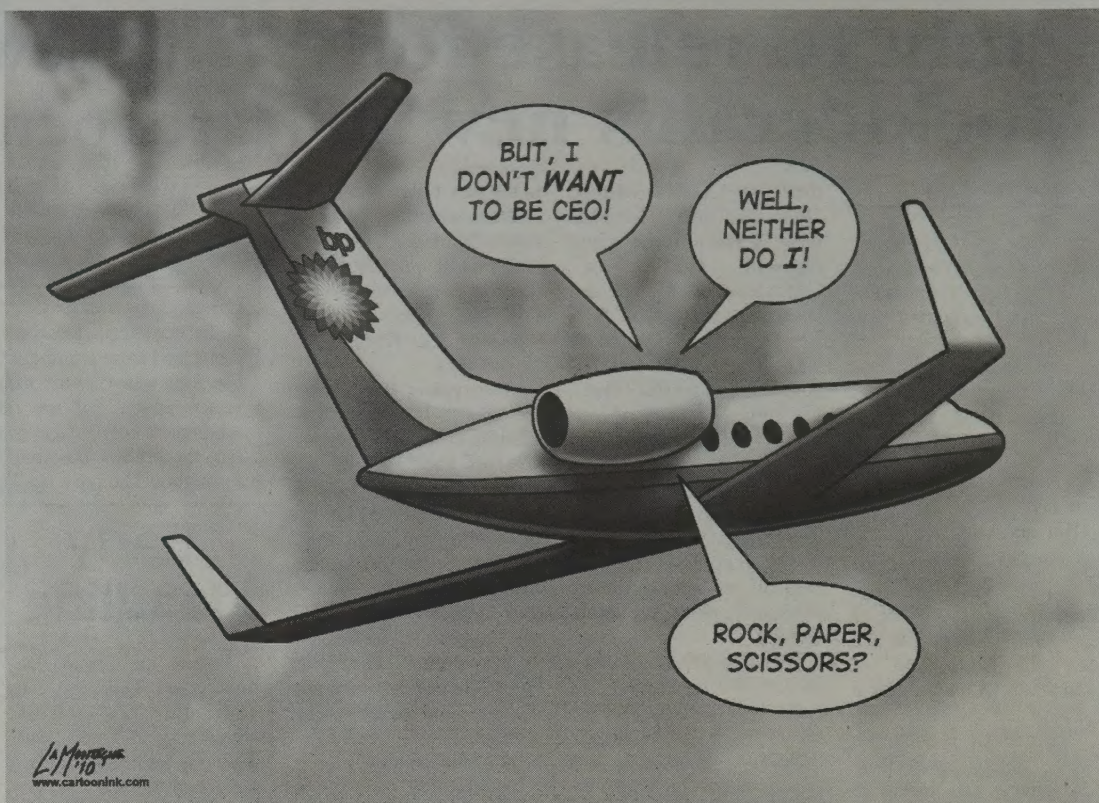

The Grace Franks awards for academic achievement, citizenship and sportsmanship went to Sarah Schade, Helen Ramful, Nicholas Musyanyuk, Justin Berg, Valerie Friesen, Kristyn Ballas, Kristin Campbell, Jonathan Buryn, Mark Ference, Tasha Yopyk, Eva Gusnowski, Kirsty Lindquist, Kali Cousins, Leanne Wilson, Joey Farebrother, Julie Young and Joanne deMoissac. Elk Point's Community Health Council steering committee reviewed draft guidelines for the development of the council.

2000

A gospel concert with 35 performers set the stage for Canada Day celebrations later in the week. A reasonable facsimile of Métis leader Louis Riel visited F. G. Miller High School to give the students new insight into life in the Canadian west at the time of the 1885 North West Rebellion.

2005

Elk Point 4-H Multi Club celebrated 40 years of learning to do by doing, as they held their year-end barbecue at Lac Bellevue, where awards of excellence were presented to Robyn Ockerman, Matthew Robinson, Chelsea Schnurer, Shaun Robinson and Tyson Ockerman. The North Saskatchewan River was approaching near-flood proportions, with large amounts of logs and other debris floating downstream after heavy rains in the mountains.

GUEST COLUMN

Celebrate Canada

On July 1, 2010, Canada will celebrate its 143rd year since Confederation. Before 1982 Canada Day had been known as Dominion Day, First of July, Confederation Day, and July the First. Canada Day celebrates the events that occurred on July 1, 1867, when the British North America Act created the Canadian federal government. The BNA Act proclaimed "one Dominion under the name of Canada" hence the original title of the holiday, "Dominion Day." Dominion Day was officially renamed "Canada Day" by an act of Parliament on October 27, 1982.

The celebrations on the Celebrate Canada calendar have become a tradition providing Canadians the opportunity to share their pride in their country. National Aboriginal Day on June 21; Saint-Jean Baptiste Day on June 24; Canadian Multiculturalism Day on June 27; and Canada Day on July 1. Thus there is an opportunity to take advantage of celebrate Canada activities. It is an opportunity to discover and appreciate the wealth and diversity of Canadian Society, and show your love of Canada and your pride in being Canadian.

Speaking of being Canadian, let me ask you a question. Where does the name "Canada" come from? Before I give you the serious answer, let me share a possible answer. When they were working on a name for their country they had so many arguments that they decided to pull letters out of a scrabble bag. These letters became: ... C, eh? N, eh? D, eh?

The origin of the name "Canada" comes from the expedition of explorer Jacques Cartier up the St. Lawrence River in 1535. The Iroquois pointing out the route to the village of Stadacona, the future site of Quebec City, used the word "Kanata," the Huron-Iroquois word for village. Jacques Cartier used the word Canada to refer to both the

deanna
from the FCSS desk

settlement of Stadacona and the land surrounding it subject to Chief Donnacona. By 1547, maps were showing the name Canada applied to everything north of the St. Lawrence River. The St. Lawrence River was called the "riviere du Canada" by Cartier, and the name stuck until the 1600s. In the 1600s, the name Canada was often used loosely to refer to New France, and as land opened up to the west and south in the 1700s, the name Canada was applied to what is now the American Midwest and as far south as present day Louisiana. But it was not official. In 1791, the Constitutional Act or Canada Act divided the Province of Quebec into two – the colonies of Upper Canada and Lower Canada. In 1841, the two colonies were united again, this time as the Province of Canada. At Confederation in 1867, the British North American Act officially joined the Province of Canada (Quebec and Ontario) with Nova Scotia and New Brunswick to become "one Dominion under the name of Canada."

Canada wasn't the only name considered for the new dominion though. W. B. Hamilton points out in The Mac Millan Book of Canadian Place Names other names suggested at the time of Confederation were:

- Mesopelagia (Greek, land between the seas)
- Victoriland
- Borealia (Latin, northern place)
- Tuponia (The United Provinces of North America)
- Superior
- Norland
- Hochelaga (Iroquoian village on the site of present-day Montreal)
- Vesperia (Latin, land of the evening star)
- Ursalia (Latin, place of bears)

On reviewing these names, aren't you glad they chose Canada for the name of our country! So let's take this opportunity to celebrate pride in our country on July 1.

Happy Birthday, Canada!

Class' dreams take flight

School board chair and grad parent Darrell Youngmans commented on this year's theme, "a significant change from themes when I graduated." More than that has changed, he noted, a Brad Paisley tune, "Welcome to the Future," bringing to mind all the changes since his own grad. "Two things that come to mind are cell phones and bottled water," both of which were unheard of in those days.

"But as you can see, what we once thought was impossible is now commonplace. So what ever you are dreaming, don't let anyone or anything stand in the way of taking those dreams as far as you can. The future is yours for the shaping, May your dreams take you to... the future."

MLA Ray Danyluk reported that "Premier Stelmach was completely amazed and impressed with the accomplishments of this community " during his June 17 visit, including the Arts and Leisure Centre where the grad was held.

Commenting on the theme, Danyluk said, "A smile is one of your greatest assets. It's your welcome. The highest of your hopes are only contained by your imagination. The windows of opportunity are open; the world is in your sight and your grasp. It is your world."

County of St. Paul Coun. Glen Ockerman brought greetings to "one great-looking group" who are "beginning a new stage of your lives. Smile, be hopeful, embrace opportunities." In this year when Canada won an unprecedented stack of Olympic gold medals, he urged, "make this your golden year."

Mayor Parrish Tung brought greetings from the town, and noted, "The six small steps you go down when you leave this stage are a giant step in your lives. You go from being students to young ladies and gentlemen with goals and the ability to achieve them. On your life's journey, always strive to realize your dreams."

Superintendent Brodziak agreed that the class "has turned from school kids to young ladies and gentlemen before my eyes," and offered such life lessons as, "cherish your family and friends, learn more by listening than talking, and look forward to relaxing at the end of your day." Most of all, he said, "make the deliberate choice to be the person you should be."

Laura Lilje and Melanie Sloan gave the class history and outlined the accomplishments of each grad as they came forward to accept school memorabilia from Youngmans.

Diane Faithful brought gifts from the Frog Lake Board of Education to Justin Delorme and Adriauna Faithful, wishing them the best on their "new path on the journey of life," while Clarence Faithful presented the two with eagle feathers.

Ross Daniels presented Métis sashes to Jerrica Durocher-Barthel, Anita Rose Cardinal and Adriauna Faithful on behalf of the Fishing Lake Settlement Council, and told them, "You have built a sound foundation for advanced education. It is gratifying to see your determination."

Myles Quinney presented Timmy Quinney Memorial Athletic Scholarships, supported by Devon Canada, to Tyson Proskiw, Tyson Bristow and Brett Lindquist in memory of his brother, who had "a love and a passion for sports."

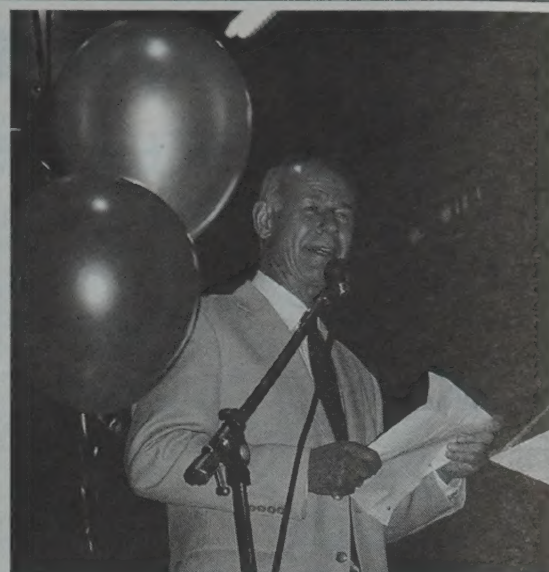

Following the slide show, Taylor Jenner, Tanner Shankowski and Brett Lindquist gave the class message, thanking class treasurer Margaret White and former classmate and grad MC Quillan Lowry. They thanked their teachers for their efforts and professionalism, for guiding them and seeing their potential, the parents for keeping them safe and healthy, answering their "whys," and for supporting them through their many "firsts," and the community for the awards, scholarships, and "commitment to all of us. Because of you, Elk Point is the right place to be."

Cheri Lindquist called the evening, "One of those real world experiences. This is the first class to have a balloon drop, and because of their teamwork, the Arts and Leisure Centre now has steps all around the stage," donated by the class. She thanked all involved in making the evening a success.

Grads Josh Gadowski and Alyx Aarbo passed the ceremonial Crusader sword to Grade 11 students Gregory Babcock and Tori Becker before Ariel Kwasnycia sang a farewell song on behalf of the class, who helped her with the chorus of 'Thank Yous' at the end. The ceremonies concluded with the tossing of mortarboards.

EPE Awards Day

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Awards that Principal Lorne Young called, "near and dear to our hearts" were handed out Friday morning at Elk Point Elementary School, as another school year drew to an end.

"Judging by the number of awards given this year, you are doing your job as parents," school board chair Darrell Younghans told the audience of proud parents and grandparents. "And we want you to keep tabs on us that we are doing our job as a school division. I believe we have done our jobs well if our children leave school with the necessary skills to become caring and productive members of our society, whether that be as a rocket scientist or a labourer, as long as they turn into the type of neighbour we all would want."

Audrey Poitras, President of the Métis Nation of Alberta and niece of the late Grace Franks, presented the Grace Franks awards to the top overall students in each class: Grade 3A - Megan Adkins, Corbin Ockerman, (not present) Parker Allen; 3B - Graham Stuparyk, Samantha Urquhart; 4A - Warren Ference, Nolan Vogel; 4B - Morgan Baker, Jaden Plaska; 5A - Vanessa Ockerman, Hayley Vinge; 5B - Karlee Rinas, Austin Young; 6A - Rosie Sam; 6B - Jesse Theriault.

Academic Honours awards went to students with at least an 80 per cent average on their core subjects. Cathy Lindquist and Wayne Hymanyk presented awards to: Grade 3A - Megan Adkins, Abby Baker, Kaiden Evans-Anderson, Corbin Ockerman, Tessa Pindroch, Andrew Richer, Carson Vogel and (not present) Parker Allan; 3B - Alyssa Duncan, Tyson Gadwa, Michael Habiak, Garret Kinaschuk, Brooke Krider, Dillan Kulczycki, Garrett McGillivray, Dustyn Pankiw, Adana Pinder, Connor Popiel, Keanna Radcliffe, Graham Stuparyk and Samantha Urquhart.

Teachers Bernice Capjack and Leanne Vinge presented Academic Honours awards to: Grade 5A - Amy Harms, Olivia Rose Leaf, Ross McGillivray, Vanessa Ockerman, Tristan Pinder, Siobhan Richer, Austin Stafford, Hayley Vinge, Skylar Wowk and (not present) Ramsey Mudryk; 5B - Christopher Boratyniec, Bailey Brooks, Renae Cameron, Savannah Lawrence, Dylan Odgaard, Taylor Pankiw, Kelly Raymond, Karlee Rinas, Eric Stuparyk, Austin Young and (not present) Noah Barber.

School board chairman Darrell Younghans presented the school's citizenship awards to: Grade 3A - Nicole Bristow, Justin Bzowy, Macey Drobot, Catherine Nofall, Carson Vogel and (not present) Hunter Nelson; 3B - Zea Germain, Brooke Krider, Madison Krider, Adana Pinder, Keanna Radcliffe; 4A - Lyon Cueva, Tristan Feero and (not present) Darby Swedgan; 4B - Kira Brunner, Dana Gibson, Sydney Letwin and Brody Odgaard.

This year's Bepalko Memorial Awards went to a brother and sister duo, Dustyn and Taylor Pankiw, and were presented by Ed and Joanne Bepalko.

School board chairman Darrell Younghans presented the 2009-10 St. Paul Education Regional Division No. 1 Grade 6 Academic award to Rosie Sam.

Heinsburg Community School bids farewell to principal at Awards Day

By VICKI BROOKER
Review Staff

Heinsburg Community School came to the end of what Principal Jill Greening called "an exciting year" on Friday with their annual Awards Day, where she stated, "The staff did an amazing job, and the students did an amazing job."

True to the habits they have displayed during the year, all but one of the Attendance Award winners were on hand to accept their awards. Recipients were: Nizhoni Cross, Nathan Stanley-Whitehead, Katie Fiddler, Sterling Dion, Gabriel Faithful, Brittney Fiddler, Taci Quinney, Jayden Abraham, Shayden Abraham, Courtney Stanley-Whitehead, Rebecca Henderson, Cyrus Jackson, Sunrise Moocheweines, Claude Cross, Cassandra Quinney, Joshua Abraham, Erin Jackson, Tristin Jackson, Michael Abraham, Valeen Jackson, Elizabeth Jackson, Dana Stanley, Jasmine Paul and Jeremy Saddleback.

Greening and assistant principal Philip Ng presented Citizenship Awards to a group of "model students, who show respect and courtesy": Starlight Moocheweines, Keegan Fryingpan, Syrai Singer, Sterling Dion, Brittney Fiddler, Drayshawn Stanley, Danielle Dion, Isaiah Foureyes, Kerri Dion-Walker, Sunrise Moocheweines, Jayden Stanley, Ryan Martin, Alexandria Abraham, Brendan Cardinal, Kyesha Stanley, Wade Jackson, Elizabeth Jackson, Lindsey Delorme, Darlene McCarthy and Valeen Jackson.

Athletic awards went to students active both in the gym and in after-school activities: Lyndsey Whitstone, Aric Moyah, Larissa Moosepayo, Gabriel Faithful, Gabrielle Potts-Abraham, Taci Quinney, Destiny Faithful, Justice Dion-Daniels, Jake Fiddler, Sunrise Moocheweines, Keelan Singer, Rebecca Henderson, Tristen Scanie, Joshua Abraham, Rebecca Checkosis, Tristan Powder, Katelyn Fryingpan, Michael Abraham, Jessica Henderson, Lindsey Delorme, Faydra Saddleback, Jeremy Saddleback and Valeen Jackson.

Most Improved awards went to students who showed dramatic growth in attitude, academics and participation since September: Kaycee Quinney, Keenan Fryingpan, Courtney Cardinal, Fred Daniels, Brittney Fiddler, Carlos Cardinal, Rachel Dion, Shayden Abraham, Shayley Chief, Noah Stanley, Janine Abraham, Jordan Cardinal, Naya Chief, Brendan Cardinal, Rebecca Checkosis, Shelby Norris, Katelyn Fryingpan, Benny Moyah, Ramona Quinney and Jasmine Paul.

Academic awards went to students who achieved overall high standards: Nizhoni Cross, Mason Dion-Walker, Syrai Singer, Fred Daniels, Gabrielle Potts-Abraham, Carlos Cardinal, Tatum Abraham, Justice Dion-Daniels, Kerri Dion-Walker, Shayley Chief, Carlos Quinney, Seneca Waskahat, Alexandria Abraham, Joshua Abraham, Erin Jackson, Tristan Powder, Rayel Berland, Bradley Saddleback, Kennedy Quinney, Lindsey Delorme, Faydra Saddleback, Jeremy Saddleback and Valeen Jackson.

Mrs. Saddleback and Mrs. Cardinal praised the parents for their encouragement and presented Cree awards to Nizhoni Cross, Malachi Faithful, Syrai Singer, Gabrielle Faithful, Gabrielle Potts-Abraham, Carlos Cardinal, Destiny Faithful, Justice Dion-Daniels, Sunrise Moocheweines, Seneca Waskahat, Ryan Martin, Rebecca Henderson, Alexandria Abraham, Joshua Abraham, Rebecca Checkosis, Wade Jackson, Bradley Saddleback and Rayel Berland.

Mrs. Goddard presented the Accelerated Reader awards, with Rebecca Checkosis receiving a laptop computer as the top AR student, Valeen Jackson placing second, Jasmine Paul third and Elizabeth Jackson fourth.

St. Paul Education Regional Division No. 1 board chair Darrell Youngmans congratulated the students on their year, and presented the division's 2009-2010 Grade 9 Achievement Award to Bradley Saddleback and the Grade 6 Achievement Award to Kerri Dion-Walker. "I know the hard work you put into your studies. Keep up the good work and success is bound to come your way."

Youngmans thanked the parents for "showing your continued confidence in our division by making this your school of choice. I hope we are meeting your expectations." He noted that close to 18 per cent of the school's students had received attendance awards, which "is no small feat. The credit goes to you, the parents. On behalf of your children and their future, I thank you."

Melvin Abraham presented four Grade 9 students from Frog Lake First Nations with jackets from the Chief and council, and also brought along "a special award and a certificate of appreciation for Jill Greening from the parents, for her kindhearted encouragement and guidance."

Greening is leaving the school to join her husband in Saskatchewan, and also received a special gift from the Grade 2/3 class and a framed and autographed photo of the entire student body. She thanked the parents and students, and tearfully noted, "I loved being here, but I love my husband a little bit more."

Retiring principal Jill Greening thanked the students and staff for their framed and autographed photo they presented to her at the close of the Awards Day ceremonies. Assistant principal Philip Ng joined in the applause.

Re-tiered Midget Sox doing well

BASSETT
Review Sports

Some of the coaching staff had doubts whether or not Dustin "Itchy" Berg could pitch even one complete inning again this year. Battling through injuries all year, having issues with his hip and back, at times he walked like an 90-year-old man, "Itchy" should have been known as the "Big Hurt". But Dustin was determined to prove the coaching staff wrong, and in the June 19 game against Sherwood Park at South Jasper Place, he hurled the complete seven inning game, allowing only one earned run on six hits, striking out six batters and only walking three, the Sox winning 9 to 2. Some great defense behind a pitcher always helps, the boys committing only one error. Brett "Bert" Romanovich with three RBIs, Chad Brears with two RBIs, Evan "Emie" Joly with two RBIs on two hits.

The second game on Saturday was against the league-leading SJP Jays, who haven't lost a game all this year, the Sox taking this game into an extra innings before losing 10 to 9. Chad Brears pitching five innings, Evan Joly coming in on relief, Brett Romanovich with three RBIs, Chad Brears with two RBIs, Dustin Berg with a single and a triple, Greg Brady adding a single.

On Father's Day Sunday, June 20, the Sox played at Tiger Goldstick Park against the East Park Orioles, Dylan "Scratchy" Berg getting the call on the hill for the Sox in another tight match, the Sox would eventually win 9 to 7. Dylan pitched four innings, "Smoken Joel" Campbell coming in on relief. Back catcher Tanner Corbeil with three singles, Ryan Keefe with two singles, a double, and three RBIs.

For the first time in the Midget Sox' 14-year history, the Sox may have cracked the Tier 1 of the Baseball Alberta League, in the old system this was your top AA teams. Still a couple of games to be played and it looks like a real log jam with some teams in the province, the re-tiering wasn't done by press time, but the Sox may end up in third, forth or five spot in the province when it all shakes out later this week. Last year the boys won the gold medal in the Tier 2 and the year before won the silver medal in Tier 2, which has made us a very respected club in the midget league, but now if the Sox can make it to Tier 1, they will be truly one of the elite midget ball teams in the province.

Here's some more great ball news: the Elk Point Mosquitos have entered a team into what is known as the community provincial league, and will be hosting a provincial round robin this coming weekend, with Fort McMurray, Mundare, and Kikino all coming to our town.

Last weekend the Mosquito East team playing in the Lakeland League final in St. Paul, won its first game against Cold Lake, then lost to Bonnyville, and then defeated St. Paul in the final. Mosquito West lost the first game and won its second game.

In peewee provincial action, Colin Nazarchuk is playing with the Bonnyville Braves, who are undefeated in 12 games, "Naz" has helping the cause with his pitching and a home run on Father's Day.

And now for the K.A. Campbell quote of the week "You can see a lot by just observing." Last week's answer to: "The game of baseball is a clean, straight game, and it summons to its presence everybody who enjoys clean, straight athletics. It furnishes amusement to the thousands and thousands." - William Howard Taft.

Local residents graduate from Lakeland College

VERMILION: Three Elk Point area residents graduated from Lakeland College during convocation ceremonies held at the college's Vermilion campus on May 28. They are: Megan Derewynka and Hillary Lovell, both graduating from the Early Learning & Child Care program and Michelle Zapesocki, graduating from the Educational Assistant program.

This year's graduating class included 368 candidates at the Vermilion campus and 120 candidates at the Lloydminster campus from applied degree, diploma and certificate programs. It also included people from across Canada who completed distance education studies. People who complete trades apprenticeship technical training and firefighting programs were recognized at ceremonies held throughout the academic year. University transfer students were recognized during a ceremony in March.

Love From Your Family

Fellowship for Erica Lind

INFORMATION SUBMITTED

While most university and college graduates have hung up their caps and gowns, Erica Lind has chosen to stay on and dedicate her career to the field of educational advancement.

Earlier this month, TD Insurance Meloche Monnex awarded a total of $75,000 in fellowships as well as the Friend of Education and Rising Star Award at the Canadian Council for the Advancement of Education (CCAE) annual conference in Victoria.

Lind, who attended the University of Lethbridge, is one of three fellowship recipients. The other two recipients were Maude N. Béland from Université du Québec à Montréal and Michael Duncan from the University of British Columbia. The CCAE Friend of Education Award was given to Bill Brock, who has devoted over 50 years to supporting Canadian higher education, philanthropy and internationalism. Former TDIMM Fellow Janina Ganton was awarded the 2010 CCAE Rising Star Award, demonstrating the lasting effect the fellowships have on young professionals.

"Strong schools produce strong leaders," said Jean R. Lachance, Chairman, Affinity Market Group, TD Insurance Meloche Monnex. "To strengthen schools, we need to support the advancement profession, which is the backbone of Canada's higher education institutions."

IN MEMORIAM

BERG, Dennis John

In memory of our dear son and brother, Dennis John Berg, who passed away on July 2, 1989.

You can shed tears that he has gone or you can smile because he has lived,

*You can close your eyes and pray that he'll come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all that he's left.*

*Your heart can be empty,
because you can't see him
Or you can be full of the love you shared,*

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday or you can be happy for tomorrow

because of yesterday.

You can remember him and only that he's gone or you can cherish his memory and let it live on.

You can cry and close your mind,

be empty and turn your back or you can do what he'd want, smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

*If Roses grow in Heaven Lord, please pick a bunch for us.
Place them in our Dennis's arms and tell him they're from us.*

Tell him that we love and miss him,

and when he turns to smile, please place a kiss upon his cheek

*and hold him for a while.
Remembering him is so easy and we do it every day
But there is still such an ache in our hearts, that never goes away.*

Forever loved and missed by mom, dad, Rusty and Family, Sharon and Family.

In the F. G. Miller spotlight...

Athlete of the Week

Lindsey MacDonald

Lindsey started track last year around May and has been doing it ever since. She takes part in both indoor and outdoor meets year round. Last year she went to a meet in Medicine Hat where they were choosing the Alberta team to compete in Westerns. Westerns are when Alberta, Saskatchewan, and Manitoba compete at a meet for the cup. Lindsey was the only first year midget to make the team. She has competed in two provincial meets and has brought home gold and silver. In two weeks Lindsey will be going to St. Albert where they will be choosing the Western and National team which will compete in Winnipeg. Lindsey started playing volleyball this year. She was asked by Tyler Collins to play on the Sharks volleyball club team in Bonnyville. Lindsey is also a defenseman on a hockey team.

enjoy having her in class. She gets along with everyone and is always willing to lend a helping hand. Brianna was chosen for the WISEST Summer Research Program where she will be doing soil sampling and analyzing them afterwards with scientist, D. Sylvie Quideau. She gets to go to areas around Edmonton where she will get samples at different sites. She certainly will have an interesting summer.

Student of the Week

Brianna White

Brianna is an honor roll student here at F.G. Miller and teachers

This is the final instalment of Athlete and Student of the Week for the 2009-2010 school year. Thank you to F. G. Miller High staff for sharing the achievements of these students with our readers. We hope to have the school back on board next year with more athletes and students.

Have a great summer, students!

See you in September!
